or write 33 West 24th Street, NEW YORK, N. Y.

For some time it has been confidentially predicted that Lord Roberts would retire from the office of Commander-in-chief of the British army. It is said that his experiences as head of the war office have been far from pleasant and that he has contemplated resigning for over a year past. The veteran British leader is now seventy-one years old.

LONGSHOREMEN STRIKE.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 2.—The longshoremen have gone on strike here. All work on the wharves has been suspended and as a result the large British steamer Alcoa and the Austrian steamer Kobe which were taking in cargoes for the Orient have been tied up to the wharves.

The Alcoa was in this port in September, 1900. She is to take a cargo of lumber, wheat, and general merchandise to Manila. The Kobe was under charter to take a similar cargo to Chinese ports.

WALL STREET SENSATION.

New York, Nov. 2.—The report of former U. S. Senator Smith, receiver for the shipbuilding trust, has been made public and has created a big sensation in Wall Street and in financial circles generally.

Smith alleges that the promoters of the trust committed fraud in organizing the concern and floating the company's bonds. He recommends that Charles M. Schwab, late president of the steel trust, and other promoters of the United States Shipbuilding Company, be prosecuted.

It is charged that by reason of secret agreements between Lewis Nixon, who was the main promoter of the trust, and Charles M. Schwab, the shipbuilding company purchased from Schwab the Bethlehem Steel Company works for forty million dollars, and that his transaction alone afforded Schwab a profit of twenty-seven million dollars.
